

CURATORIAL REPORT

Submitted by Ewa Chwojko-Srawley

February 26, 2018

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- The new website is ready to be launched. Amanda Grey is working on finishing touches. I have been updating the old website in the meantime.
- The exhibition AT HOME WITH MONSTERS; A CABINET OF CURIOSITIES by Keswick High School students (Main Gallery) closed on February 11, 2018.
- Several of the works by Keswick High School students will be exhibited at the Sutton library, replacing the KidzArt show.
- The exhibition Georgina 200 opened February 18, 2018. Almost 100 works by Georgina artists (mostly members of the Georgina Creative Group) were submitted. Three new, young Georgina artists participated for the first time. They found us in Instagram! The opening reception was very well attended; at least 3 works are already sold.
- The 2018 exhibition schedule is complete, contracts are signed. I am working with the artists on details.
- There are artists lined up for the 2019 exhibitions; we are developing details for the shows.
- There is one off-site exhibition planned, the Chiarandini Retrospective in the Newmarket Old Town Hall Gallery which opens March 18. I am working on the loan documents, logistics etc. 38 paintings from our Permanent Collection were selected.
- An off-site KidzArt exhibition was installed on January 16 at the Peter Gzowski Library, Sutton. I will be replace with the works by the Keswick High school students later this week.
- I am currently working on the next show – Helen's World by a local artist, Helen Barcza – which opens on April 1, 2018.
- I have started developing contents for the spring edition of The Palette. Please provide your submissions. March 10 is the deadline.
- An Art Talk fundraiser is planned for Sunday April 8 2018. I am participating in planning the details of this event.
- As usual, tasks have included:
 - Creating marketing materials
 - Submitting free ads
 - Promoting Gallery events and exhibitions at Rogers TV
 - Updating the web site and brochures
 - Creating promotional materials for social media

- Attending meetings
- Documenting Gallery events/classes etc. for the Palette and social media.